

2006 BCIHA SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT ANNOUNCED

For immediate release:

June 23, 2006

The BC Inline Hockey Association is pleased to announce the recipient of the 2006 BCIHA Scholarship. John MacGregor from the Delta Revolution Roller Hockey League is the winner of the $500.00 scholarship. This is the 4th consecutive year that the BCIHA has recognized the accomplishments of one of its member players.

John has proven to be a roller hockey enthusiast as both a player and league volunteer since the 1998 season. While being an avid player at both the House League and Rep team levels, John has also been involved in the League operation in a variety of roles including:

- Sign Display
- Player Registration
- Player Development Clinics
- Certified Referee
- Youth League Coach
- Equipment Manager
- Fundraising

Beyond John's roller hockey commitments he has also shown to be well-rounded student-athlete. He is an honour role student, who has managed to juggle a number of different sporting activities, the academic demands of Grade 12 and a part-time job.

The 2006 Scholarship Award will assist John in his post-secondary pursuits at the University of British Columbia - Okanagan. John's long-term goals include study in the Faculty of Commerce – Business Management with the hopes of one day operating his own business.

This is the first time the award has gone to a player outside the North Shore Inline Hockey League.

Past Winners include;

2006: John MacGregor, Delta Revolution
2005: Sean Porter, North Shore Inline
2004: Mark Silvanovich, North Shore Inline
2003: Mark Russell, North Shore Inline

The BCIHA Scholarship is to reward excellence in both scholastic and roller hockey pursuits. The successful applicant is a student-athlete who has balanced his/her high academic achievements with significant success as a roller hockey player and contributor to the community.

The BCIHA would like to thank all applicants for the 2006 BCIHA Scholarship Award.

Congratulations John!
